

INVITATION

The XLIV International School of Hydraulics, similarly to previous events, is intended to provide a forum for scientists and engineers working in the broad field of hydraulics.

By bringing together experts (academics and practitioners) and young scientists, we hope to create a very good atmosphere for scientific debate and learning, and to make this occasion an enjoyable experience for all participants.

It would be a pleasure to welcome you to Poland in May 2027.

SCHOOL CHAIRS:

Monika Kalinowska
Paweł Rowiński
Institute of Geophysics
Polish Academy of Sciences

Special benefits for Young Researchers!
